

Lomita Family Adopting Their Fourth Child

Thomas Uribe and his wife, Alvina, are expecting a baby daughter to expand their family of two boys and a girl at 25017 Oak St.

The new daughter will arrive through arrangements by Holy Family Adoption Service... one of 171 agencies sharing Community Chest money.

The Uribes will see the new baby for the first time at the adoption service, 158 N. Occidental Blvd., Los Angeles.

When it became apparent they were not to become parents, the Uribes decided to acquire a family by adoption.

Their first tentative inquiry met with defeat, because a case worker told them their home too small for children.

So they set about finding a larger house. In 1951, they bought the four-room house on Oak St. It has a roomy back yard.

With the aid of his brother-in-law, Louie Corral of Torrance, Uribe remodeled the kitchen. Then they tore out a back wall and built a room with a fireplace, virtually doubling the original area.

When it was finished, in 1952, Mr. and Mrs. Uribe made their first application for adoption.

Tommy came to them almost a year later, to gladden their 1953 Thanksgiving. Nadine joined them at Easter, in 1955, and little Arthur became their second Thanksgiving baby, last November.

Holy Family Adoption Service was licensed in 1949 by the state Department of Social Welfare.

In the year ending last February 29, 149 children were placed for adoption and 132 adoptions completed by court decree.

Of that number, 37 were of minority or mixed racial background, two had serious physical handicaps, and one couple adopted the 11th set of twins placed by the agency.

READY FOR MORE—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Uribe and family are awaiting fourth child—this one to be a daughter. From left, Arthur, 9 months; Tommy, 6; Nadine, 5 years old.
